Discipleship

"Marriage Lived for the Glory of God" —

John Piper

Why marriage? Why is there marriage? Why does marriage exist? Why do we live in marriages? This means that my topic is part of a larger question: Why does anything exist? Why do you exist? Why does sex exist? Why do earth and sun and moon and stars exist? Why do animals and plants and oceans and mountains and atoms and galaxies exist? The answer to all these questions including the ones about marriage is: All of them exist to and for the Glory of God.

That is, they exist to magnify the truth and worth and beauty and greatness of God. Not the way a microscope magnifies, but the way a telescope magnifies. Microscopes magnifies by making tiny things look bigger than they are. Telescopes by making unimaginably big things look like what they really are. Microscopes move the appearance of size away from reality. Telescopes move the appearance of size toward reality. When I say all things exist to magnify truth and worth and beauty and greatness of God. I mean that all things—and marriage in particular—exist to move the appearance of God in people's minds toward reality.

That is the starting place for understanding marriage. If we get this wrong, everything goes wrong. And if we get it right—really right, in our heads and in our hearts—then marriage will be transformed by it. Marriage will become what it was created by God to be—a display of the truth and worth and beauty and greatness of God.

This leads to a very simple conclusion—so simple and yet so far reaching. If we want to see marriage have the place in the world and in the church that it is supposed to have—that is, if we want marriage to glorify the truth and worth and beauty and greatness of God—we must teach and preach less about marriage and more about God.

Most young people today do not bring to their courtship and marriage a great vision of God—who He is, what He is like, how He acts. In the world there is almost no vision of God. He is not even on the list to be invited. He is simply and breathtakingly omitted. And in the church the view of God that young couples bring to their relationship is so small instead of huge, so marginal instead of central, and so vague instead of clear, and so impotent instead of all-determining, and so uninspiring instead of ravishing, that when they marry, the thought of living marriage to the glory of God is without meaning and without content.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

The youth will be collecting items for Operation Christmas Child again this year. Please bring the item requested for each month and put it in the box in the church office. For March we are asking for toothbrush with holder. For January it was small flashlight with batteries. For February it was bar soap with a covered travel holder. For April we are asking for T-shirt (solid colors, stripes, or all over pattern - no writing or pictures). For June we are asking for small box of crayons or colored pencils with a sharpener.

THANK YOU

Dear Church Family,

Thank you so much for the financial support you contributed toward my mission work with Camp Impact. I am very blessed to be part of a church that is so generous and supportive of not only me, but its community. I began training in Greenville approximately two weeks ago, and the other interns and I moved into the Allendale house on Sunday., June 10th. I know God is at work, and I am excited to be a part of Camp Impact. Please pray that the Lord opens many opportunities for Camp Impact to make an impact on the lives of the children and families involved. May God's name be glorified. <Matt. 16:24-25.

Love, Michaela
