DISCIPLESHIP

Reasons we want you at our church
The Love of Christ

We believe in Jesus Christ.
We believe He is the Savior of the world.

That is why we gather and worship at this church. Quiet frankly, that is why we do what we do.

There are many good organizations out there. And many of them are doing a great job serving others and helping others. We are grateful for those organizations.

But churches are different. We do all we do because we love Christ. We know His love. We have experienced His love. We have given our lives to Him.

WE REALLY WANT YOU HERE
You may already be a Christian. That is great. We hope that you can continue to experience the love of Christ at this church. Serving and loving Christ was never meant to be a solo effort. It was meant to be shared with fellow believers.

Maybe you aren’t a Christian. Or maybe you have questions or doubts about being a Christian. We will explore this matter further in chapters 5 and 7. But please understand you are welcome here regardless. We want you to experience the love of Christ.

It is transforming. It is forgiving. It is life changing.

Perhaps this reason is the greatest reason we are glad you are here. We really hope you experience the love of Christ at our church.

Nothing could be more important.

WE WANT TO SERVE YOU
Everyone has needs. Everyone has hurts at points in his or her life. Everyone has questions too.

We really love serving people and meeting needs. We would really love to serve you.

WE WANT YOU HERE

What is your need? Do you have questions about marriage, Children, and family? Have you experienced the pain of loss in recent months? Do you feel lonely at times?

We want to serve you.

You will find at our church a number of people who find it a great joy to serve others. Many of them may have walked in your shoes. Someone in this church had experiences amazingly close to yours.

You may feel like you don’t want to bother us. Hear us clearly. We take great joy in serving others, in serving you. So, please, don’t hesitate to tell one of us how we can help you. Please let us know. Don’t think for a moment you are alone. We are with you and for you.

THANK YOU

Hanging of the Greens was a beautiful and inspirational service.

Dear Church Family

Thank you so very much for the prayers, cards, phone calls and beautiful cross wreath during the illness of and after the death of our husband and father, Charlie Kennedy. The love and support you have always shown our family helped us get through this difficult time. Charlie loved his church family! Please continue to pray for us.

With Much Love,

Julia Ann, Angie, Janet and Families
