I am with you always, to the end of the age.

-Matthew 28:20

“Are you alone?” The answer would affect their decisions she made about treatment, especially the decision about letting the patient return home that night.

“Are you alone?” the host at the restaurant asked. The answer would affect the table he chose for the guest who had just arrived without a reservation.

“Are you alone?” the pastor asked the newcomer as he visited with worshipers before the service. The answer would affect his follow-up plan later that week.

So how about it. Are you alone? Many people feel that way, even when they are surrounded by a large circle of family and friends. It’s especially common after one of those major life transitions’ you know the ones I mean:

The day after the layoff—and all the days After that until you find a new job.

That first night in your darkened bedroom after the divorce decree is final.

The day Mom leaves after easing you through the arrival of you first baby.

The morning you awaken as a new retiree.

Alone. All by itself, this word can make us squirm a bit. It evokes feelings of discomfort, even fear.

When you feel like that, on your own and uneasy like that, Jesus speaks words of assurance. He intends that his promise will touch your heart and calm your fears. “I am with you always.” your Savior pledges, “to the very end of the age.” Even when the stars in the universe blink for the last time and then stop shining. Jesus’ presence will remain. He will continue to pour out his amazing grace upon you.

Thank you to Melissa Googe Zeigler for giving the church a box of communion cups. We appreciate it very much.

Mission Projects

- Our Youth will be collecting money for the Samaritan’s Purse Operation Christmas Child again this year. What is collected between now and October will be used to build online Shoeboxes. Jars will be in the entrance to church and church office. If you would like to donate, you may add this as a designated item on an offering envelope. If you have any questions, contact Mary Jean. These online built Shoeboxes are unique in that they are sent to remote areas where children have never heard the name of Jesus.

Ministry Health Kits

Please include the following
Place in a two-gallon zip lock bag:
1 toothpaste (6 oz or larger)
1 toothbrush, 1 soap (4.5 oz) 1 washcloth,
1 bath towel, 1 hair comb.

The Association office goal this year is 300 bags. Please return to church office by Wednesday, June 29. Any questions, contact Nettie Sibley.

Birthdays this week June
