"Your Life is Shaped by Your Thoughts" By Rick Warren

God is far more interested in changing your mind than changing your circumstances.

You want God to take away all of the problems, pain, sorrow, suffering, sickness, and sadness. But God wants to work on you first, because transformation won't happen in your life until you renew your mind, until your thoughts begin to change.

Why is it so important that you learn how to manage your mind? Let me give you three reasons.

Manage your mind, because your thoughts control your life.

Proverbs 4:23. "Be careful how you think; your life is shaped by your thoughts." (GNT) For example, maybe you accept the thought someone told you when you were growing up, "You're worthless. You don't matter." If you accepted that thought, even though it was wrong, it shaped you life.

Manage your mind, because the mind is the battleground for sin.

All temptation happens in the mind. Paul says in Romans 7:22-23, "I love to do God's will so far as my new nature is concerned; but there is something else deep within me, in my lower nature, that is at war with my mind and wins the fight and makes me a slave to the sin that is still within me. In my mind I want to be God's willing servant, but instead I find myself still enslaved to sin." (TLB) One of the reasons why you get mentally fatigued is because there's a battle in your brain 24 hours a day. It's debilitating because it's intense, and it's intense because your mind is your greatest asset. Satan wants your greatest asset!

Manage your mind, because it's the key to peace and happiness.

A unmanaged mind leads to tension. A managed mind leads to tranquility. An unmanaged mind leads to conflict. A managed mind leads to strength and security and serenity. "Letting your sinful nature control your mind leads to death. But letting the spirit control your mind leads to life and peace" (Romans 8:6 NLT
