God's Complete Protection

“Those whom You gave Me I have kept; and none of them is lost except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.”
-John 17:12b

Nothing that Satan can do to you should cause you to fear (2 Tim. 1:7). Jesus chose the twelve disciples the Father had given Him and then jealously guarded them from the evil one. Jesus sent His disciples into the world where they experienced difficult and dangerous circumstances, but He interceded on their behalf with His Father that they would have His strong protection from the evil one (John 17:15).

In the same way, Jesus said that we, as His sheep, are held securely in the Father's strong hand (John 10:28). There is no better place to be than safely in the hand of Almighty God. Do you believe this, or are you fearful of what Satan or people can do to you? The apostle John encourages us that we do not need to fear: “He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world” (1 John 4:4). This is not merely a theological concept but a profound reality in which you can have absolute confidence. It is not just a truth for meditation in the security of your home; it is a promise you can cling to in the midst of a hostile and menacing world.

What you do reveals what you believe. If you are living a fearful, anxiety-filled life, you are proving your lack of confidence in God's protection, regardless of what you may say. Live your life with confidence that Jesus is continually interceding with the Father on your behalf. If you trust Him completely, you will have nothing to fear.

Dear Fairfax First Baptist Family,
On behalf of my entire family , I want to extend our deepest gratitude for your kindness, generosity, and support during the funeral services for our beloved mother, Janet Zeigler McKenzie.

The warmth and care shown by your staff and congregation made the service truly meaningful and gave us a peaceful space to honor and remember her life.

We are especially thankful for the pastor's message, the hospitality team, the beautiful floral arrangements, and music provided.

Thank you again for being a source of strength and compassion. We are forever grateful.

With heartfelt appreciation,
Johnnie, Nina, John Christian McKenzie
